For instilling in our minds an awareness of the present,

For helping us in the search for our role in contemporary situations,

For being an understanding friend with our individual problems,

For guidance which will mold our future lives, and

For showing Christ to us by daily action,

We express our sincere thanks and deep appreciation to you, Mr. John H. Krall.

Epilogue

We, the people have felt the texture of society at EMHS. Parts of our personalities have been rewoven, renewed. New patterns have been developed and compared. Individual prints were composed. Curiosity and experience strengthened the fabric of life. Now we move forward strong in will, in determination to search, to find, and not to yield.
